MODERN AND CLASSICAL LANGUAGES – CLASSICS

CHANGE IN CLASSICS MA DEGREE PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

7. Rationale for Change(s): If rationale involves accreditation requirements, please include specific references to those requirements.

Classics graduate students already work in two ancient languages. Those who intend to go on to a doctoral program will be encouraged to achieve modern language competency as well. Many of our students do not intend to go on to a doctoral program and for them this requirement is not appropriate.

INVESTIGATOR REPORT

INVESTIGATING BODY: Area C, Cynthia Ruder

DATE FOR COUNCIL REVIEW: 13 September 2002

CATEGORY: Drop

INSTRUCTIONS: This completed form will accompany the course application to the Graduate/Undergraduate Council(s) in order to avoid needless repetition of investigation. The following questions are included as an outline only. Be as specific and as brief as possible. If the investigation was routine, please indicate this. The term "course" is used to indicate one course, a series of courses or a program, whichever is in order. Return the form to Associate Dean, 231 Patterson Office Tower for forwarding to the Council(s). ATTACH SUPPLEMENT IF NEEDED.

1. List any modifications made in the course proposal as submitted originally and why.

None

2. If no modifications were made, review considerations that arose during the investigation and the resolutions.

History Department request to drop HIS 568. Since Professors Theda Perdue and Mike Green went to UNC a few years ago, the department remains without faculty to teach these courses in Native American history. There are no plans to hire in that field so it makes sense to remove them from the course bulletin and department programs in order to ensure that students are not mislead by the supposed official course offerings in the Bulletin.

3. List contacts with program units on the proposal and the considerations discussed therein.

Eric Christiansen, department faculty--It is appropriate and necessary to drop these courses, as he explained in Item #3 above. Karen Petrone, department faculty (immediate past UGS)--When asked "Will there be any ill effects to undergraduates given that these courses no longer will be offered?" the reply was that as it currently stands, the UK Bulletin is misleading in that students believe that there are courses offered on Native American History when, in fact, those courses no longer are offered. Moreover, as new faculty join the department, the hope is that by clearing the decks of these courses, new faculty can, and will, propose new courses that reflect their areas of expertise, especially as they pertain to Native American history.

4. Additional information as needed.

Of those Committee members who responded, the decision was unanimous to drop this course.
