ARTICLE V - Reports

FOUNDATION will submit in a timely manner those reports described in the Scope of Work. Such reports shall be in the format agreed to by the Designated Technical Representative.

ARTICLE VI - Patents and Inventions

1. a) All rights and title to all inventions, improvements and/or discoveries, including software, know-how, patent and other intellectual or industrial property conceived and/or made solely by one or more employees or students of FOUNDATION in the performance of the agreement, shall belong to the FOUNDATION.

b) All rights and title to all inventions, improvements and/or discoveries, including software, know-how, patent and other intellectual or industrial property conceived and/or made solely by one or more employees or students of COMPANY in the performance of the agreement, shall belong to the COMPANY.

c) All rights and title to all inventions, improvements and/or discoveries, including software, know-how, patent and other intellectual or industrial property conceived and/or made jointly by one or more employees or students of FOUNDATION and one or more employees of COMPANY in the performance of the agreement, shall belong jointly to the FOUNDATION and COMPANY.

2. FOUNDATION shall promptly notify COMPANY of any inventions, improvements, discoveries, software and the like conceived and/or made during the performance of this agreement (hereafter "Inventions"). Disclosures submitted by FOUNDATION to COMPANY shall be identified as confidential.

3. The filing, prosecution, and maintenance of patent applications and patents covering Inventions shall be carried out by the owner thereof, at the said owner's sole discretion and expense. In the event the owner elects not to apply for any such patents, the other party shall have the option, at its sole expense, to apply for the patents. FOUNDATION and COMPANY will cooperate in the filing, prosecution and maintenance of joint inventions.

4. COMPANY shall have the right to be the first to negotiate terms for a royalty-bearing, exclusive worldwide license to make, sell and use, any discovery, know-how, or patented invention developed in the performance of this agreement. COMPANY and FOUNDATION shall negotiate in good faith the terms of a license at the time of disclosure. In the event that COMPANY and FOUNDATION are unable to agree to terms for such license within 60 days after disclosure of the invention, then FOUNDATION shall be free to negotiate with any third party; provided, however, that FOUNDATION shall not enter into any agreement with any such third party that is less favorable to FOUNDATION than COMPANY'S last offer until COMPANY has been given a thirty day right-of-first-refusal to agree to the same terms and conditions.

5. COMPANY and FOUNDATION shall retain sole ownership of their respective Background Intellectual Property Rights. Except for any license option expressly granted herein, nothing in this Agreement, or any course of dealing between the parties will be deemed to grant to a party any license whatsoever (whether express, implied, by estoppel or otherwise) in or to any of the other party's Background Intellectual Property Rights.

ARTICLE VII - Proprietary or Confidential Information

Should proprietary or confidential information be exchanged under this agreement, each party agrees, absent any special provisions to the contrary, to:

1. use its best efforts to receive and maintain in confidence any and all confidential or proprietary information delivered by one party hereto to the other party;
2. use confidential information solely for the purpose or purposes for which it was disclosed and for no other purpose whatsoever;
3. as a receiving party, to disclose confidential information to its employees, officers, agents, and representatives only on a need to know basis;
4. identify in writing all confidential or proprietary information as such at the time of disclosure;
5. not release confidential or proprietary information to any third parties; and
6. to dispose of or return proprietary or confidential information to the disclosing party when requested or upon expiration or termination of this contract. The period of protection of confidential information shall be 3 years from the effective date of this contract.

Confidential information does not include any information which:

1. is already in the public domain or which becomes available to the public through no breach of confidentiality by the recipient;
2. was lawfully in recipient's possession on a non-confidential basis prior to receipt from the discloser;
3. is received by recipient independently on a non-confidential basis from a third party free to lawfully disclose such information to the recipient; or
4. is independently developed by recipient without use of the discloser's confidential information;

The release of confidential information by the receiving party to satisfy the requirements of federal, state or local laws shall not be a breach of this agreement.

ARTICLE VIII - Publication

Subject to limitations of ARTICLE VIII, FOUNDATION shall have the right to publish any information or material resulting from the conduct of the Scope of Work. FOUNDATION shall furnish the COMPANY with a copy of any proposed publication 30 days in advance of the proposed publication date for review and comment. COMPANY may require deletion of any COMPANY Proprietary or Confidential Information included in such proposed publication. COMPANY may also request FOUNDATION to delay publication for a maximum of an additional 60 days in order to pursue patent protection on any Invention described in the manuscript. No delay, however, will be imposed on the filing of any student thesis or dissertation.

ARTICLE IX - Changes and Modifications

Any changes to this contract must be made in writing and must be executed by both parties to indicate acceptance of the modification. Any change that might impact cost, price, or delivery must be agreed to in writing prior to initiation of any work associated with the proposed change.

ARTICLE X- Assignment and Subcontracts

Neither performance nor payment involving the whole or any part of research effort described under Article I may be assigned, subcontracted, transferred, or otherwise given or imposed on any other party by FOUNDATION without the prior written consent of the COMPANY.

ARTICLE XI - Mutual Responsibilities

1. Each party will comply with all applicable governmental laws, ordinances, rules and regulations in the performance of this contract.
2. Without affecting or limiting any other provisions of this contract, it is agreed each party's obligation under Article VIII may survive the expiration of this contract.
3. Each party to this contract is an independent COMPANY with each party solely responsible for its own business expenses and employees including but not limited to salaries, benefits, insurances, withholding, worker compensation and taxes. Employees of either party shall not be deemed agents, employees or representatives of the other party.
4. In the execution to this contract, the person whose signatures are set forth are duly authorized to execute the contract and bind the parties.

ARTICLE XII - Use of Names

COMPANY shall not use the name of FOUNDATION or the University of Kentucky in any news release, advertising or other publication without express written permission.

ARTICLE XIII - Termination

Either party may terminate this contract at any time if:

1. The other party materially breaches the terms of this contract; provided that the non-breaching party shall have given the breaching party written notice of such breach and the breaching party shall have failed to cure the same within (30) days after receipt of such notice.
2. There is the loss or departure of key personnel that would jeopardize both the quality and time of performance or would make performance impractical with respect to budget contemplated for this contract, and a mutually acceptable replacement cannot be found.
3. Performance of any part of this contract by a party is prevented or delayed by reason of Force Majeure and cannot be overcome by reasonable diligence to satisfaction of either party; or
4. The other party ceases, discontinues or indefinitely suspends its business activities related to the services to be provided under this contract, or the other party voluntarily or involuntarily files for bankruptcy.

In the event of termination, immediate written notice by email, fax, or hard copy shall be given by the party requesting termination to both the technical and administrative contacts of the other party, which should specify both reason and the effective date of termination.

In addition, either party may terminate this contract for any reason with 60 days written notice by email, fax, or hard copy to both the technical and administrative contacts of the other party.

Upon any termination except for breach of contract, FOUNDATION shall deliver to COMPANY in the state they exist as of the date of termination all work product, materials, including confidential information and property belonging to COMPANY. COMPANY shall within (30) days after termination, pay FOUNDATION all payments due as of the effective date of termination.

ARTICLE XIV - Applicable Law

This contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of Kentucky.

ARTICLE XV – Export Controls

It is understood that FOUNDATION is subject to United States Laws and regulations controlling the export of technical data, computer software, laboratory prototypes and other commodities, and that its obligations hereunder are contingent on compliance with applicable U.S. export laws and regulations (including the Arms Export Control Act, as amended, and the Export Administration Act of 1979). The transfer of certain technical data and commodities may require a license from the cognizant agency of the United States Government and/or written assurances by the COMPANY that the COMPANY will not re-export data or commodities to certain foreign countries without prior approval of the cognizant government agency. While FOUNDATION agrees to cooperate in securing any license which the cognizant agency deems necessary in connection with this Agreement, FOUNDATION cannot guarantee that such licenses will be granted.

It is the normal operational policy of the FOUNDATION that its work and the results of its research undertakings are exempt from compliance with US governmental export regulations under the Fundamental Research Exemption. Should the COMPANY provide or transmit under this agreement any technology or data that is subject to governmental export regulatory compliance and does not qualify as exempt under the Fundamental Research Exemption, FOUNDATION reserves the right to refuse acceptance of such material or data and/or to terminate this agreement. Such refusal or termination shall not be considered a breach of contract obligations.

ARTICLE XVII - Entire Agreement

This contract is intended by the parties as a final written expression of their agreement and supersedes and replaces any prior oral or written agreement. Any terms or conditions inconsistent with or in addition to terms and conditions herein contained shall be void and of no effect unless specifically agreed to in writing and signed by both parties.
