

Dear Faculty and Staff of the Environment,

As the calendar year draws to a close, Tracy Farmer Institute for Sustainability and the Environment is finalizing plans for the UK Sustainability Forum to take place Thursday, December 6th from 4:30- 7:00 PM, hosted in partnership with the Appalachian Center. For the past seven years, the Sustainability Forum has been an opportunity to gather, share, learn and celebrate UK faculty and students who dedicate their work or scholarship toward addressing sustainability or environment related issues.

Proposals are being accepted for presentations through November 19, 2018. Student presentations will be included in a judged poster competition and winners will receive cash prizes in graduate and undergraduate categories. I hope you will consider joining us and sharing this information with friends and colleagues who may be interested in the poster contest or in attending the Forum.
