Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed, Something Blue: Research in Populations with Impaired Decisional Capacity

DATE: Tuesday, November 13, 2018
TIME: Presentation: 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. (Lunch @ 12:00 p.m.)
LOCATION: HG 611

Presented by:
Gregory A. Jicha, MD, PhD
Professor and Vice Chair for Academic Affairs
Department of Neurology
Sanders-Brown Center on Aging
University of Kentucky

Upon completion of the program, attendees will be able to:
1) Define population and disease conditions that predispose to potential decisional capacity concerns
2) Demonstrate the use of capacity evaluation tools in the setting of the research consent process
3) Evaluate research strategies that maximize conduct while ensuring human subject’s protections in impaired populations

REGISTRATION REQUIRED
To reserve your place, please email CCTS at CCTS@UKY.EDU by Monday, November 12, 2018.
If you require special physical arrangements to attend this program, please call 323-8545.
Food provided by the CCTS.

CME Accreditation
The University Of Kentucky College Of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.
The University Of Kentucky College Of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
The University Of Kentucky College Of Medicine presents this activity for educational purposes only. Participants are expected to utilize their own expertise and judgment while engaged in the practice of medicine. The content of the presentations is provided solely by presenters who have been selected for presentations because of recognized expertise in their field.

ACGME Competencies
Patient Care, Medical Knowledge, Practice-based learning & improvement, Interpersonal & Communication Skills, Professionalism

Disclosure Statement
All planners, speakers, authors, and reviewers involved with content development for continuing education activities provided by the University of Kentucky are expected to disclose any real or perceived conflict of interest related to the content of the activity. Detailed disclosures will be included in particular materials or given prior to the start of the activity.

An Equal Opportunity University